

Serial No. 10/006,492

REMARKS

The above amendment is made in response to a Examiner's Proposed Amendment that was received by the Applicants via facsimile on October 4, 2005. Specifically, claims 1-142 have now been canceled without prejudice. New claims 143-158 have been added that directly reflect the proposed allowable claims in the Examiner's Proposed Amendment. It should be noted that for clarity reasons, the Applicants elect to add new claims instead of amending the existing claim set. Applicants believe that the pending claims are allowable over the present rejections as previously stated in Applicants' Response dated August 9, 2005. Allowance of these pending claims is respectfully requested.

Applicants' representative would like to thank Examiner Allen for kindly taking a substantial amount of time on numerous occasions to discuss the merits of the subject invention. Applicants' representative is aware of the time constraint that is placed on the Examiner and is appreciative of the Examiner's willingness to devote such large quantity of time to discuss the case on the merit.

Conclusion

Applicants respectfully submit that all of these claims fully satisfy the requirements of 35 U.S.C. §§101 and 112. Consequently, the Applicants believe that all the claims are presently in condition for allowance. Thus, both reconsideration of this application and its swift passage to issue are earnestly solicited.

If, however, the Examiner believes that there remains unresolved issues, it is requested that the Examiner grant Applicants a telephone interview by contacting the undersigned at (732) 530-9404 so that such issues are resolved as expeditiously as possible.
